Did you know that one interview in front of the right audience could skyrocket your business?

I'm Monique Jackson - celebrity publicist, brand strategist, and tv show producer. For years now, I've helped clients like Laila Ali, Brandy, Lisa Leslie, Terrell Owens, and Niecy Nash get press and build their brands. Now I want to help you do the same.

My clients pay me thousands of dollars each month to get them press on The View, The Real, CNN, Essence magazine, radio shows, and so much more. I've even used this same framework to get myself press on TV shows like The Doctors, Wendy Williams, Steve Harvey, local news stations, Black Enterprise Magazine, Essence Magazine, Huff Post, The Grio, Ebony and other online magazines and press platforms. Just like my celebrity clients, I walk tons of red-carpets and attend award shows and exclusive events - all because I know how to pitch myself and get the press to say yes.

It is my personal goal this year to teach 100 everyday entrepreneurs my step-by-step framework on How to use PR to become profitable.
